Community and Economic Development

KCLS Renton Library in Liberty Park Engineering Update.....Peter Renner, Facilities Director Community Services

Miller-Hull Partnership, the architect for the Renton Library in Liberty Park, in consultation with the geotechnical and structural engineering consultants, has proceeded to develop a rough order of magnitude cost estimate using the augercast piles topped by structural slab method to provide structural stability. The slabs would be located on each bank of the river and be connected to the existing structure over the river. That concept was briefly discussed at the November 13th Open House.
