

A Byte of Renton

City News
& Events

JANUARY 30

State of the City Address

No, former "Almost Live" host John Keister will not be delivering this year's State of the City address. John did, however, host one of the videos that highlight the previous year's accomplishments and is shown as part of the address.

Join Mayor Denis Law for his annual State of the City address on January 30, at 8 a.m. in the Renton Pavilion Event Center. Visit rentonwa.gov/sotc for ticket information and to see videos from previous years.

New playground equipment

Last week we opened new playground equipment at both Tiffany Park and Cedar River Trail Park. The equipment is intended for ages 2 through 12 and is designed for safety. New equipment is currently being installed at Thomas Teasdale Park.

rentonwa.gov/parks

STREAM Team spots available

There are a few open spots for STREAM Team (science, technology, recreation, environment, art, math), our FREE after school program for kids K-8. Call 425-430-6744 or go online to apply.

rentonwa.gov/recreation

HISTORY MUSEUM Switchboards to Selfies

From fountain pens to typewriters and switchboards to smartphones. Communication has changed as technology evolves. Learn how at the Renton History Museum through April.

rentonwa.gov/museum

JANUARY 30

Wells and Williams open house

Receive an update on the conversion of Wells Ave S and Williams Ave S into two-way traffic. Renton Library, 3 to 6 p.m.

rentonwa.gov/wellswilliams

