I've returned to a weekly newsletter but will continue to provide the most current COVID-19 updates from around the city as well as information from state and federal officials and agencies.

Celebrate Juneteenth

Today is Juneteenth, when we celebrate the freeing of the last slaves in Texas on June 19, 1865, more than two and-a-half years after the Emancipation Proclamation.

Many of those freed slaves made their way to the northwest and specifically to Renton. Here, they settled and worked in the coal mines and profoundly impacted our city. Their pioneering spirit lives on today and pushes us to be better.

Here in Renton, we've celebrated Juneteenth in the past by coming together as a community, attending workshops and enjoying music and dance. Each of these activities were carefully planned and designed to educate us about African American heritage and to honor the lives, sacrifices and contributions they have given to our country.

The effects of COVID-19 will keep us from holding a community-wide celebration, but it has not kept us from commemorating the date. Our Public Affairs team has put together this video featuring a reading of the 2020 Juneteenth proclamation, a look at what Juneteenth means and musical performances. I hope you enjoy it.

Philly Flag flies above city hall

On Monday I watched as the Pride flag was raised over city hall by Winter Cashman-Crane, president of Renton LGBTQIA+ Community.

Flying this flag means more than simply showing our solidarity with Renton's LGBTQIA+ community. We honor all the pioneers of the LGBTQIA+ community who have fought so future generations could live in a more just and equal society. Renton has always been a leader in the fight for inclusion and we will continue to not only protect the rights of everyone in our city, but to expand those rights. I hope you will join me in this pledge.

This is the second consecutive year we have proudly flown the Pride Flag. This year we are displaying the "Philly Flag," which includes black and brown stripes added to the familiar rainbow colors. The black and brown stripes are an inclusionary way to highlight black and brown LGBTQIA members and also to bring attention to issues faced by people of color within the LGBTQIA+ community. The city was gifted the "Philly Flag" by Renton LGBTQIA+ Community.

The flag will continue to fly through June 21 as we continue to celebrate LGBTQIA+ Pride Month.

City offers free "Open for Business" banners

Our Economic Development staff continues to provide guidance to Renton businesses. This support is especially important as we move between phases in the governor's "Safe Start Washington" plan.

The staff have compiled available local, state, federal and private resources in the "Economic Development" section in this newsletter and at Whyrenton.com.

We're providing Renton businesses a free "Open for Business" or "Open for Pickup" banner. The banners can be displayed from eaves, on a fence or in a window, and no permits or fees are required. Email thrive@rentonwa.gov to request a banner.

Businesses can still apply for funding through the Paycheck Protection Program through June 30. The program has extended the time to spend loan funds from 8 to 24 weeks and expanded the percentage of funds that can be used for non-payroll expenses.

The Federal Reserve has expanded their Main Street Lending program. The fed board has lowered the minimum loan amount, raised the maximum loan limit, adjusted the principal repayment schedule and extended the term to five years. The program is one that small- and medium-sized businesses should examine.

If you have any questions about these resources or need to know how your business fits, please contact our Economic Development team at (206) 503-1742 or thrive@rentonwa.gov.

COVID-19 testing a success

My thanks to the members of the Somali Health Board who were instrumental in hosting last Saturday's free COVID-19 testing site.

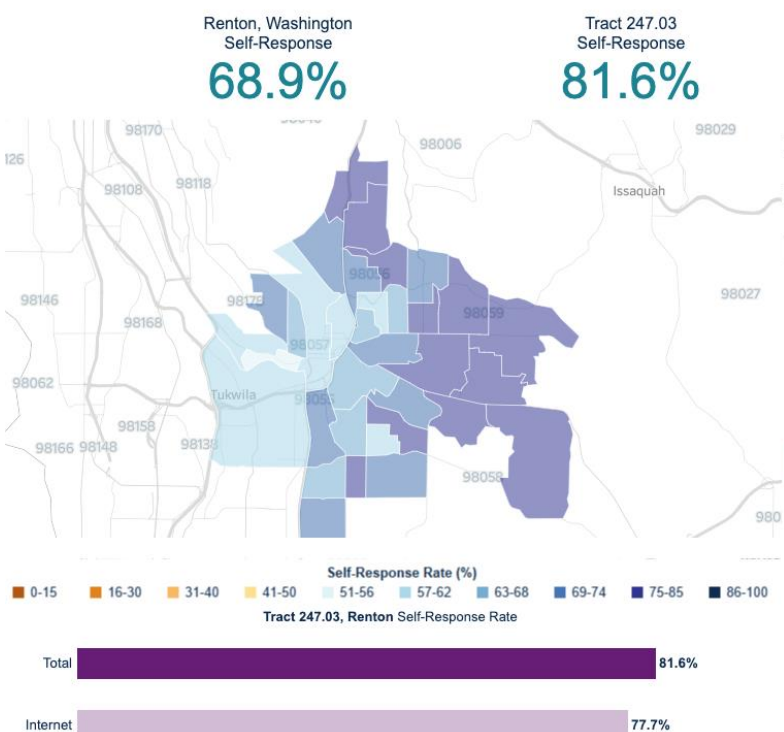

The health board partnered with Public Health - Seattle & King County, the Office of Equity and Social Justice, and the Bey Good/Tina Knowles-Lawson #IDidMyPart Mobile Testing Campaign to put on the event.

King County has a list of free testing locations.

Self-Response by Census Tract

This map features self-response rates from households that responded to the 2020 Census online, by mail, or by phone. Rates can be viewed in rankings here.

2020 Census numbers surpass 2010

Our 2020 Census self-response percentage sits at 68.9 percent, which keeps us fourth among cities in Washington with populations of at least 100,000. We're very pleased to have surpassed our 2010 self-response totals and we continue to make every effort to reach the 30 percent of our households who have not completed their form and remind them of the importance of being counted.

Our success thus far is the result of a community that has come together for a shared purpose even through we're going through a very difficult time. Once again I would like to thank our committed group of volunteers for their tireless efforts and urge anyone who has not returned their form to do so. Our next 10 years depend on it.

Inspections - Building and Development Engineering

Community and Economic Development Department (CED) continues to update homeowners and contractors regarding how the city is implementing the construction-related provisions of Gov. Inslee's COVID-19 construction restart plan and related guidance issued by the governor's office.

Upon approval for King County jurisdictions to move to Phase 2 of the Governor's "Safe Start" plan, CED hopes to perform physical onsite and virtual inspections for all construction projects pursuant to the Governor's Phase 2 construction COVID-19 job site requirements effective as of May 15, 2020. Whenever possible, virtual inspections will be accomplished. If you are interested in more information about virtual inspections, please contact the Building Division: 425-430-7200.

The phase 2 construction COVID-19 job site requirements permit all construction activity to proceed, whether previously authorized, newly authorized, existing, or not existing. In effect, new construction is no longer limited to construction that was previously authorized under Proclamation 20-25.

Under phase 2, all construction, including those activities for which social distancing may not be maintained, and the start of new construction projects, is authorized to resume. Adherence to the health and safety points in the phase 2 job site requirements will be strictly enforced. Under the phase 2 requirements, any paused and existing construction activity, may resume/continue immediately if:

- The employers and employees can meet and maintain all requirements listed in the phase 2 – construction COVID-19 Job Site Requirements document; and
- The employers and employees conduct only those activities that are allowed under their county's phase status.

The safety plan was developed as part of a working group that included contractors and workers. The plan includes requirements related to safety training, physical distancing, PPE, sanitation and cleanliness and monitoring employees for symptoms.

Prior to calling for an inspection please be sure you have met the minimum requirements necessary for an onsite inspection:

1. COVID-19 Site Supervisor

A site-specific COVID-19 Supervisor shall be designated by the contractor at every job site to monitor the health of employees and enforce the COVID-19 job site safety plan. A designated COVID-19 Supervisor must be present at all times during construction activities.

Exception: single-family residential job sites with 6 or fewer people on the site.

2. Posting of COVID-19 exposure control, mitigation and recovery plan available on job site

Prior to commencing work all contractors are required to develop for each job site a comprehensive COVID-19 exposure control, mitigation, and recovery plan. The plan must include policies regarding the following control measures: PPE utilization; on-site social distancing; hygiene; sanitation; symptom monitoring; incident reporting; site decontamination procedures; COVID-19 safety training; exposure response procedures; and a post-exposure incident project wide recovery plan. The plan must also include a Job Hazard Analysis (JHA), including a list of engineering controls and proper Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), for all jobsite activities defined by Washington State Department of Labor & Industries (L&I) as medium and high transmission risk.

No jobsite may operate until the contractor can meet and maintain all requirements of the Phase 2 Construction COVID-19 Job Site Requirements, including providing materials, schedules and equipment required to comply.

These COVID-19 job site safety practices are required as long as the "Stay Home, Stay Healthy" Gubernatorial Proclamation 20-25 is in effect or if adopted as rules by a federal, state or local regulatory agency. All issues regarding worker safety and health are subject to enforcement action under L&I's Division of Occupational Safety and Health (DOSH).

Phase 1

(May 6) Washington state is currently in Phase 1, with construction and other essential activities underway. The additions such as outdoor activities and additional sales and retail activities begin Tuesday, May 5. When the state moves to Phase 2, all components of Phase 1 will continue.

Includes

Phase 1 builds upon recent decisions made around re-opening some activities, including construction activity (allowed as of April 29) and outdoor activities such as fishing, hunting, playing golf and some park access, which Inslee announced last week.

Includes

All components of phases 1 and 2 will carry into the start of Phase 3, which will include resuming non-essential travel and allowing gatherings of no more than 50 people.

Phase 3 also includes resuming some public activity, such as:

Includes

All components of phases 1, 2 and 3 will carry into the start of Phase 4 which would be a full return to public interactions (with appropriate physical distancing).

Phase 4 also includes resuming some public activity, such as:

COVID-19 Risk assessment dashboard

The state's COVID-19 dashboard provides a high-level overview of the main data points discussed among state leaders and the level of risk experts perceive around the current numbers. It is not intended to represent the totality of all COVID-19 related data. The state is currently developing several new systems for collecting, compiling and reporting much of the data outlined below and this dashboard will link to those new systems as they are completed. In the meantime, where possible, we've linked to the data that is currently available or created a snapshot that summarizes the most recent information available. The dashboard is updated weekly on Wednesdays.
