

Dragon Egg Treasure Hunt 2026

Quest Begins: Friday, April 10 at 10 a.m. | Duration: Until all eggs are found

Get ready, adventurers! Dragon Eggs will be hidden throughout parks, public spaces, and participating locations across Renton, waiting to be discovered. This self-guided quest continues until every egg has been found—so gather your crew and start exploring!

Important: The first person to find a dragon egg gets to keep it!

How to Play:

1. Find as Many Eggs as You Can: Explore the city and track down as many dragon eggs as possible. Once an egg is found, it's gone—so move quickly!

Clues:

- Early Access: Registered participants receive clues via email Thursday evening.
- Hunt Start: The hunt begins at 10 a.m. Friday—do not search before then.
- Arts Commission Subscribers: Clues sent Friday morning.
- Event Page: A link to the clues will be added to the event page on Friday morning rentonwa.gov/dragonslanding

Locations:

- Most eggs are outdoors; some may be inside participating businesses (noted in clues).
- Please respect private property and businesses not participating.

Logging Your Eggs:

- Each egg has a unique code. Enter it in the Visit Renton app (available for download visitrenton.com)
- You can log as many egg locations as you find—each entry gives you another chance to win the Golden Egg prize package.
- Leave the code tag behind so others know the egg was found.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Can I log more than one egg? Yes—each one increases your chances to win.

Do I get to keep the egg? Yes—the first finder gets to keep it.

Are there eggs inside businesses? Some—check clues for details.
